FORMER OHIO SENATOR WITNESS

FORAKER HINTS AT CONSPIRACY

Springs Sensation Before Senate Investigating Committee.

THEFT OF ARCHBOLD LETTERS

Ohio Ex-Senator Gives Information Which He Believes Will Lead to Disclosures of Details of an Alleged Plot Through Which the Famous Missives Were Abstracted From the Files in Archbold's Office.

Washington, Dec. 19.—Joseph B. Foraker, former senator from Ohio, sprang a sensation before the senate committee investigating campaign funds. Mr. Foraker laid before the committee information which he believes will lead to a complete disclosure of all the details of an alleged conspiracy by which the Archbold letters, which have been given such wide publicity by William R. Hearst, were abstracted from the files in John D. Archbold's office and sold to men who represented themselves to be the agents of William R. Hearst.

Ex-Senator Foraker's disclosure came at the end of a two hours' hearing in which he had practically gone over all the charges made against him in connection with his relations as attorney for the Standard Oil company in Ohio and in which he had explained the letters that had been published and which purported to have passed between him and John D. Archbold.

Presents a Statement.

The former senator from Ohio presented his information in the form of a statement prepared by Gilchrist Stewart, who, Mr. Foraker testified, resides at 239 West Sixty-third street, New York city. Mr. Foraker explained that Mr. Stewart had been working on the case for him for several months. Stewart's statement, so Mr. Foraker said, was based on admissions by one of the parties to the scheme. It alleges that W. W. Winkfield, whose address Mr. Foraker gave as 2926 Wabash avenue, Chicago, and Charles Stumpf, first conceived the plan of abstracting the letters from the files in Mr. Archbold's office and selling them to the newspapers. Winkfield is said to be a stepson of Mr. Archbold's colored butler, who has long been a trusted employee.

After trying to dispose of the letters to the various newspapers, the men are alleged finally to have written a letter, marked "private and personal," to William R. Hearst, offering to dispose of the letters, and signing the name of "Charles Strong." This resulted in a meeting at a saloon known as "The Little Savoy" in New York, where negotiations were carried on with certain men who claimed to represent Mr. Hearst.

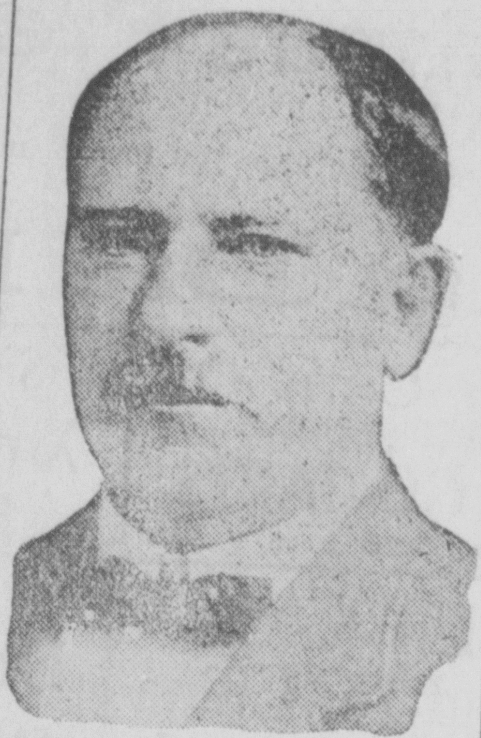

At first, according to the alleged admissions made by one of the conspirators, the men who represented themselves as Mr. Hearst's agents wanted to accept the letters without any financial consideration, assuring they would be purveyors that they were doing a great work for humanity. When cash was demanded the alleged agents of Mr. Hearst said that the output was not worth over $200. Finally the first batch of letters was sold at an agreed price of $5,000. Later, according to the story, other sales were negotiated and a considerably larger sum of money was paid before the deal was closed.

That $50,000 Certificate.

Senator Foraker entered into a detailed explanation of the correspondence that had passed between John D. Archbold and himself. He said the $50,000 certificate referred to in one of the letters had heretofore been explained by Mr. Foraker. He had said that it was to be a contribution in the

OHIO HAPPENINGS

Warrants For Alleged Cracksmen.
Bowling Green, O., Dec. 19.—Warrants were sworn out here for the arrest of William Behrens, 32; John Powers, 35; Charles Wollever, 31; William Miley, 43, and Herman Dudley, 39, on a charge of burglarizing the Munn bank at Portage, blowing the safe and stealing $4,000 on the morning of Nov. 19. The affidavits were made by Detective William Delchanty of the Toledo police department, who has been working on the case.

School Superintendent Slugged.
Girard, O., Dec. 19.—The arrest of John B. Miles, railroad worker, charged with assault and battery upon G. J. Armstrong, superintendent of schools, has this city all agog. Armstrong's nose was broken and he is said to have been otherwise seriously injured by Miles. The attack on Armstrong is said to have followed a verbal battle between him and Miles' daughter, who is a teacher in the local schools.

Six Thousand Dollars Stolen.
Dennison, O., Dec. 19.—With the arrival of special agents from the treasury department here it became known that $6,000 in bills, consigned from the subtreasury in New York city to Marietta, O., was stolen in the express office at Newcomerstown. The money was being transferred from the Panhandle railroad to the Cleveland & Marietta railroad.

Steals His Own Child.
Findlay, O., Dec. 19.—Charles N. Nusbbaum appeared at the Orphans' home and, being refused his 2-year-old daughter, it is charged he knocked down the matron, Miss Stella Hackenberger, and, hurriedly drawing a woolen cap over the child's head, made away with her, according to a report to the police. No trace of him has been found.

Hogan Predicts Indictments.
Cincinnati, O., Dec. 19.—Attorney General Hogan predicted that a number of indictments would be returned by the grand jury now investigating affairs at the Clermont county infirmary at Batavia. Attorney General Hogan added that, should indictments be voted, no immunity would be granted any officials implicated.

White Slaver Sentenced.
Columbus, O., Dec. 19.—F. G. Napier of Steubenville found guilty of violating the white slave act, has been sentenced by Judge Sater in the United States district court to serve two and one-half years in the penitentiary at Leavenworth, Kan., to which place he will be conducted at once.

Dairymen Hit by Train.
Canton, O., Dec. 19.—Milton Harding, 62, while driving his milk wagon across a Pennsylvania railway track, was struck by a train and probably fatally injured. The wagon was demolished. The horse was but slightly injured. A heavy fog prevented Harding seeing the train.

Fatally Hurt by Gas Explosion.
Mt. Vernon, O., Dec. 19.—Mrs. Elizabeth Ower, her daughter Bernice and a 10-month-old grandchild were probably fatally injured by a gas explosion at their home here. A rubber hose connected with a stove became detached and the escaping gas ignited from a hall lamp.

Will Die a Free Man.
Columbus, O., Dec. 19.—Alexander ("Doc") Green, serving a life sentence in the penitentiary for second degree murder in Stark county, was granted an unconditional pardon by Governor Harmon, on account of what is believed to be his fatal illness with pneumonia.

CAUCUS DECIDES TO HOLD 'EM UP

FIGHT DEVELOPS IN THE SENATE

Democrats Would Hold Up President Taft's Nominations.

PREVENT EXECUTIVE SESSION

Republicans Threaten to Continue Their Efforts to Procure Action on the Many Appointments Now Pending—Claim Democratic Colleagues Are Violating All Precedents by Their Present Attitude.

Washington, Dec. 19.—The long-threatened fight in the senate over the confirmation of President Taft's nominations for office broke on the floor of the senate, and in the first skirmish the Democrats were successful in preventing an executive session, demanded by Senator Cullom, Republican. The results of the encounter are uncertain, but the Republicans threaten to continue efforts to procure an executive session for action on the scores of appointments now pending.

A Democratic caucus, in which the Democrats agreed to permit the confirmation only of army and navy appointments, paved the way for the fight on the floor. In the midst of a speech by Senator Hoke Smith of Georgia, Senator Cullom, representing the Republican forces, who refused to accept the ultimatum of the Democrats, made a demand for an executive session.

The Democrats filibustered against the motion, rushing out into the cloak rooms on the rollcall to break a quorum and succeeded in delaying action until the court of impeachment convened for the Archbold trial. Republican leaders said they would continue to demand that all appointments be treated in executive session on their merits.

On the basis of figures they have compiled from the records, Republican leaders are claiming that their Democratic colleagues are violating all precedents in holding up the nominations of President Taft. During the final sessions of the Arthur, Harrison and the two Cleveland administrations they cite figures to show the bulk of the nominations were given approval by the senate.

MUST BE ABLE TO READ

House Passes Bill Excluding Illiterate Immigrants.

Washington, Dec. 19.—By a vote of 178 to 52 the house passed the Burnett bill, excluding from admission to this country all aliens over 16 years of age, physically capable of reading, who can not read the English language or the language or dialect of some other country. Government officials say the legislation proposed is the most important affecting immigration that has been passed in many years. It is aimed at persons coming from east, central and southern Europe, the sections that contribute more than any others to the tide of emigration sweeping towards the United States.

TAFT ACCEPTS KENT PROFESSORSHIP OF LAW.

Washington, Dec. 19.—President Taft has decided to accept the Kent professorship of law at Yale. He probably will take the chair early next spring. Several reasons were given for the president's action. He will not be restricted to lectures at Yale, but will be permitted to lecture in other law schools or on the platform or to engage in any other occupation.

Mrs. Heath is shown selling a good quality of storage eggs at cheap prices. She claims the dealers in New York sell the same quality eggs as "strictly fresh" for much higher prices.

LOWERED BY FIGHT

Cleveland Sees a Drop in the Price of Storage Eggs.

Cleveland, O., Dec. 19.—Competition between store keepers in the municipal market and cut-rate grocery and meat dealers brought the price of high grade storage eggs down to 18 cents a dozen here. Special lines of meat sold from 25 to 30 per cent lower. Both sides promise that the price-cutting war will continue all winter.

Grocers Will Undersell Women.
Chicago, Dec. 19.—When Chicago clubwomen undertake to sell eggs at 24 cents a dozen in order to strike a blow at the high cost of living, they will be met by competition from every retail grocer in the city. At a meeting the retail grocers decided to cut the price of eggs during the public sale planned by the clubwomen, so as to undersell the women.

Congress Takes Monday Recess.
Washington, Dec. 19.—Both houses of congress will adjourn for the holidays this evening, to reassemble on Jan. 2. Most of the members have made preparations to spend the holiday recess at their homes.

Eighteen Big Financial Institutions, Including the Morgan-Rockefeller-Kuhn-Loeb Group, Said to Exercise Control Over the Finances of the Nation—Committee Unable to Subpena William Rockefeller.

Washington, Dec. 19.—With J. P. Morgan on the stand, the Pujo investigating committee of the house started its inquiry into the concentration of the banking resources of the country. Mr. Morgan had the pleasure of listening to a recital by the committee of experts of the ramifications of his power over the banking, industrial and railroad corporations of the country.

Mr. Morgan was asked this question: "Do you believe it wise, as a matter of general policy, to permit interstate corporations, whose stocks and bonds are widely held by the public, to deposit their funds in private banks which are subject to neither state nor federal inspection and regulation?"

Mr. Morgan hesitated and then he declared he did; that it should be left to the discretion of the boards of directors.

HOLDS POLITICAL POWWOW

Wilson's Next One Will Be Saturday With William J. Bryan.

Princeton, N. J., Dec. 19.—President-elect Wilson returned to Princeton after holding in New York the first political conference of major importance since he returned from Bermuda. For nearly three hours he was closeted with National Chairman McCombs at the Waldorf-Astoria and discussed in detail the formation of his cabinet and some of the policies with which the incoming administration at Washington is to be largely concerned. His next conference for this same purpose will probably be with W. J. Bryan, who will be in New York Saturday night. When asked if he and National Chairman McCombs had discussed Mr. Bryan, Mr. Wilson said they had not, for the reason that he is soon to meet Mr. Bryan himself.

Only One Competitor Left.

Cincinnati, O., Dec. 19.—Joseph Steubenrach of Hartford, Conn., agent for the American Cash Register company of Columbus, O., continued in the United States district court the story of his competition with the National Cash Register company, whose officers are on trial for alleged trust law violation. United States District Attorney McPherson stated to the court that the American company is practically the only remaining competitor of the National company.

Will Carlton, Author, Dead.

New York, Dec. 19.—Will Carlton, widely known as the author of many ballads of farm and city life, died at his home in Brooklyn after a three-days' illness of bronchial pneumonia. He complained of ill health for a week, but his death was very unexpected.

WIDOW'S MISFORTUNE

Fatally Hurt In Runaway While Returning From Husband's Funeral.

Martins Ferry, O., Dec. 19.—Mrs. Carol Morris, widow of the watchman who was burned to death in a fire which destroyed the plant of the Ohio Valley Enamel company Monday, is dying as the result of injuries sustained when the team attached to a carriage in which she was returning from her husband's funeral ran away, throwing her against a post. She has five small children.

Lima Clerk Gets Job.

Probing Auto Accident.

Dayton, O., Dec. 19.—The coroner is investigating the accident in which an automobile went over the Miami river bank, killing William Kauffman, 23, and injuring Lillian Descamp, 26, and Charlotte Swallow, 22. Another young man was in the machine, but he has escaped.

Another Suit Against Standard Oil.

Findlay, O., Dec. 19.—The third suit against the Standard Oil company and its Ohio subsidiaries to collect $150,000 damages was filed here by David Dale. Discrimination in the price of oil is alleged.

Kaiser Wilhelm Talking Politics to His Chancellor

THIS interesting picture of Kaiser Wilhelm and Chancellor von Bethmann-Hollweg was taken at the recent royal hunt at Springe, Germany. They are talking international politics. It was shortly after this meeting that the chancellor in the reichstag announced Germany's policy concerning Austria, exhibiting the mailed fist in warning to Russia. The threatened war between Austria and Serbia looked most serious at that time, and the chancellor's statement was most significant.

THREE PERSONS SEND CORRECT ANSWERS

The word in The Herald advertisement that was purposely misspelled in the contest of yesterday was "inimitable" in the advertisement of S. S. Cockerill & Son. It was spelled "inimatable".

Only three persons out of the large number who sent in answers caught the error. They were Miss Anita Plymire and R. R. Feagans, of Blackmer & Tanquary's Drug store and S. A. Murray, the former being the winner. She is entitled to receive two admission tickets to The Empire Opera House for the attraction, "Little Miss Susan," Saturday night.

The many letters received and the number of corrections sent in indicates that The Herald advertisements were read very closely last night. Among the errors noted were "adjunct" in Craig Bros. advt., incorrectly spelled "adjuant"; "Bargains" in H. K. Spencer's advt., incorrectly spelled "Bagains"; "S. P. U. G. S." in Tharp's advt., incorrectly spelled "S. P. U. D. S." but according to copy; "Pound" in Barnett's advt., incorrectly spelled "Ponnd"; "Introductory" in Craig Bros. advt., incorrectly spelled "ietroductory"; "Wreaths" in Cockerill's advt., incorrectly spelled "Wreathes," "street" in H. T. Wilkin & Co.'s advt., incorrectly spelled "srreet"; "Buying" in Gossard's advt., incorrectly spelled "Buyng". One person objected to "Kris Kringle" and another to "Katz" in Katz' advt.

The misspelled word contest closes tonight. In this issue will appear one word purposely misspelled.

Find it and mail your answer quickly. This paper will issue an order for two admission tickets to "Little Miss Susan" at The Empire Saturday night, to the person sending in by mail the first correct answer.

All employees and others connected with The Herald are barred.

Address all letters by mail to Little Miss Susan Editor, Washington Daily Herald.

Christian Scientists Donate to Library

A few local people interested in Christian Science have donated a year's subscription to the weekly Christian Science "Sentinel" and the Daily "Monitor" to the Public Library of our city and these papers are now on file in the library reading room.

They have also donated a number of novels through which runs a thread of Science, but these novels are by no means considered in the line of text-books.

Some time ago "Science and Health" and other writings of Mrs. Eddy were installed in the Library.

Alleged Gamblers May Plead Guilty

Attorney Carey Baughn, accompanied by Jack Taylor, the colored man in whose apartments nine colored men were found under circumstances pointing toward gambling, Sunday, appeared at the Mayor's office Thursday morning and asked for a postponement of the trial.

The postponement was granted until tomorrow morning, during which time it is said the money for the fines will probably be raised and a plea of guilty entered by the ten men. The charge against them is gambling.

CLUB NEWS

The Ladies' Missionary Society of the Presbyterian church met on Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Austin F. Hopkins and despite a pouring rain there was a large attendance.

Assisting as the afternoon's hostesses were Mesdames Snyder, Dixon, Devaney, Bonham, N. S. Craig, Pensyl, Jones, Walker, Thompson, Miss Templin.

After the opening service and business reports, Mrs. W. B. Woodward read letters from Mrs. Lyan, missionary in Tsining Chow, China. One special feature of rejoicing was that the new railroad is within a month of completion. Railroads are rushing it in China and Dr. Sun Yat Sen very much alive to the advantage of China and educational and religious movements there.

Another letter was from Mrs. Candor for 20 years our missionary in Bogata, Columbia. Mrs. Candor was cordially greeted here upon her return visit a year ago and entertained with her talks and beautiful voice.

Mrs. Thos. S. Pinkerton gave a most interesting article on "Our Kinsfolk in the Southern Mountains." Mrs. Aus Hopkins presented strong argument on "Conservation of National Ideals".

Two very beautiful vocal solos were sung by Miss Mary Wilson, of Ada, Miss Goldie Baughn accompanying, and Miss Mazie Kessler playing a violin obligato.

Edwards Hopkins also added to the pleasure of the program in a piano solo.

The social hour was one of Christmas gaiety, with dainty refreshments served.

Mrs. Martha Gallup, of Portsmouth, was an out-of-town guest.

FOSTER—GOSSARD.

Two well-known Fayette county young people surprised their families Wednesday by slipping off to Grace M. E. parsonage and having the nuptial knot tied by Rev. Frederick E. Ross.

The bride was Miss Verne Gossard, the beautiful and attractive daughter of Mr. J. Gossard, north of town.

The bridegroom was Mr. Vere Foster, son of Mr. Howard Foster, of Bloomingburg, and a young farmer, standing high in the esteem of a large acquaintance.

Tuesday afternoon the bride came down from her home for a little visit with her aunts, Misses Charity and Rachel Vesey, in Millwood. On Wednesday, she left them as if starting for home and met Mr. Foster, the young couple going at once to the parsonage. After the ceremony they took the train for Columbus, from where they telephoned their families.

Although taken unawares the parents responded with good wishes and are expecting their children home on Sunday.

A large circle of friends in town and county will join in extending congratulations.

IN A GOOD CAUSE.

Governor-elect James M. Cox has openly declared himself to be in entire sympathy with the rapidly increasing army enlisted to fight the "White Plague."

With an open, frank statement which has already become characteristic of the Governor-elect, he commits himself as favoring a very respectable sized appropriation by the state to aid in this great work of educating the people.

The Ohio Society for the Prevention of Tuberculosis, which has been valiantly fighting the terrible disease for more than 10 years and has accomplished wonders in educating the people to take care of themselves and in remedying conditions under which the plague thrives.

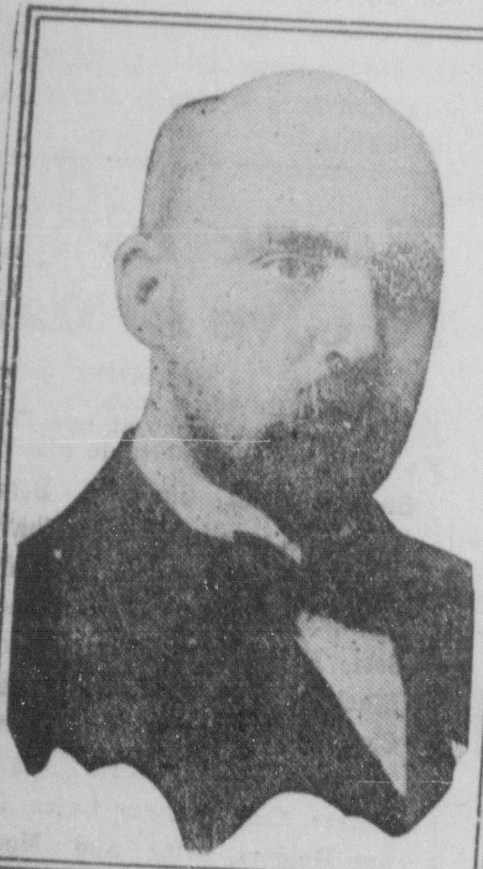

The next legislature will be asked to appropriate a sum for two years, to establish and maintain such a department under the state board of health. The present work of the volunteer society will be carried on and extended, the work among the physicians will be organized, and an extensive campaign of education will be inaugurated.

The Governor-elect believes, like many other people, that tuberculosis fighting has been reduced to a scientific basis. He believes that it can be done through proper education and instruction; and he knows, like every one else knows, that this costs money. The state can well afford to spend a few thousand a year in this field, and carry out the plans which the volunteer workers have been prevented from doing by a lack of resources.

There is no greater menace to the human family today than tuberculosis, the dread disease which only a few short years ago was believed to be incurable.

Scientists and philanthropists of the higher type were not content to abide by the verdict of the ignorant and although many considered the cause hopeless, a band of crusaders was recruited from men and women of that type and the war begun. Slowly at first, progress was made, then knowledge—the positive knowledge which comes when science proves a great truth—and the recruits have multiplied and become more courageous in the fight. Sanitation and upright living are known preventives of a further spread of the disease, and an effectual method of treating even the afflicted has been provided.

If volunteers could do so much in this great work certainly the public can now extend a helping hand.

Bad Men Are Logical Result of a Mistaken System

By FRANK MOSS, Assistant District Attorney of New York County

WE are rearing gun men by the hundred in New York and other large cities today. A friend of mine in charge of certain mission work in New York city has talked to me of this. He found boys inhabiting his neighborhood ORGANIZED INTO GANGS and at the start believed this to be a manifestation of boys' innate love of adventure.

The country boy who goes to Sunday school and says his prayers may in his week day playtime become a member of an imaginary band of pirates bold. It is the spirit of romance at work in him and does no harm.

But these boys in my friend's district were not filled with the spirit of romance, for when he asked them what they called their gangs he was informed that one gang's chosen name was "THE YOUNG TOUGHS," another gang had selected as its clan name "THE YOUNG CROOKS," and so on.

In other words, in these youths—public schoolboys, mind you—had been implanted NO IDEALS ABOVE THE IDEALS OF THE CRIMINAL. The good people of America would be amazed if they could know the youthfulness and the apparently respectable demeanor of many of the younger criminal generation which the prosecutors have to handle.

THE BAD BOY IS NOT SPORADIC, A CREATURE SPRINGING UP IN SPITE OF WORTHY EFFORTS TO GIVE EVERY BOY A CHANCE TO BE A GOOD BOY. HE IS THE LOGICAL RESULT OF A MISTAKEN SYSTEM, AND THE ARMY WHICH HE IS ENLISTED IN, INIMICAL TO LAW AND ORDER, PUBLIC DECENCY AND CIVIL WELFARE, IS RECRUITING FAR MORE RAPIDLY THAN ANY OTHER ARMY IN THIS NATION.

Poetry For Today

OLD RHYME RESTORED.

O, have you heard about the fall
That Humpty Dumpty's had again?
They talk of nothing else at all
Among the egg commission men.
They say that Humpty went to play
Still higher on the parapet.
And those who saw him yesterday
Don't think he's hit the bottom yet.

The pretty corner where he played
Was only built upon the sands,
And when the granitoid decayed
They all had troubles on their hands.
They called on every storage man
To push with all his level might,
But when the debacle began
The ruination was a sight.

The corner groceries arise
And offer eggs at twenty cents;
The wicked plunderbunder sighs,
And utters storage house laments.
The wolf, who knew what eggs were worth,
Retires bewailing to his den,
And Humpty will return to earth
As low down, probably, as ten.

"Don'ts" Issued By Fire Marshal

By way of practical suggestion the State Fire Marshal submits the following as to the dangers of the Christmas tree all of which are easily followed and have been made before.

"Don't leave an illuminated tree unwatched.
Don't use festoons of tissue paper or cotton batting on a tree.
Don't use any ornaments of celluloid.

"Don't let the children touch the tree.
Don't permit a draft of air to sway the branches of a tree while it is illuminated.

"Don't put cotton beneath a tree to make the carpet look like snow-covered ground.

"Don't remove a thing from the tree until the candles on it are blown out.

If the appearance of snow is desired for any purpose use "mineral wool," or asbestos. It will not burn and gives a better effect than cotton.

Finally, let the safety of your children and your property be your first consideration and Christmas will then be a season of happiness undisturbed by accident.

Couldn't Fool the Boy.

A Hebrew boy, eleven years of age, who was a fever patient in a Philadelphia hospital, had shown a disposition to whine and complain at all times. The nurse was giving him an alcohol sponge, and, thinking to divert his mind, she said to him as she rubbed under his arms:

"Ticklish?"
Still whining, the youngster said:
"No; Yiddish."

"LITTLE MISS SUSAN."

Fred Raymonds whose "Missouri Girl" has taken front rank among the plays of its kind, has presented in the new western play, "Little Miss Susan," another attraction that is destined to become even more popular than the "Missouri Girl". In his latest production Mr. Raymond has an excellent plot, not at all exaggerated, but one which works out well and without a long stretch of imagination upon the part of the audience. The scenes of the play are laid in the Ozark mountain region of Arkansas and in the city of St. Louis. The quaint talk and customs of the rural people of the play are natural and the aristocratic city people also appear without affectation. A pretty love affair and the implicating of a whole souled, energetic young man of unblemished character in a train robbery which occurred near his home, form the basis of the story. Through the simple yet tactful work of Susan her lover is acquitted of the accusation and the guilty parties brought to justice.

The part of Little Miss Susan is delightfully portrayed by Miss Greta Mason, a little actress with winning personality. W. W. Wilson is well fitted to play the difficult part of Jeremiah Snodgrass, an eccentric individual of four score years. Fred Raymond, Jr., as Jim Cummins, the lover who is wrongfully accused of crime fills the part in a most satisfactory manner. Miss Clare Masters, the Arkansas belle, who seeks the attentions of Jim, is well suited to the character she takes. Miss Melda Gibson, as Stella Mayhew; R. W. Conant as Gerald Hawley, the villain; J. C. Carlisle as Joe McGruder, an accomplice in crime, and Messrs. G. G. Wright, A. E. Lord and Robert Hobson, in the parts of train-robber, sheriff and detective, respectively, do their work well.

"Little Miss Susan" drew good audiences at both the matinee and evening performances at the Columbia theater Saturday.—Alliance Review, 11-11-12.

"Blanket your horses. Don't let them stand at the hitch rack for an unreasonable length of time.

It costs only ten cents to comfortably house your horse while in the city, and the Humane laws of the state of Ohio provide for prosecution of those who neglect their animals in leaving them without blanket, or at the hitch rack an unreasonable long time.

Illegal Fishing Will Be Stopped

The State Fish and Game Commission was informed Tuesday afternoon that fish poachers have been taking tons of fish from Big Darby between Georgesville and Harrisburg.

Low water and clear ice have made it possible for the "fish hogs" to reap a veritable harvest during the past week. Using "gigs," which are sharp-pointed spears with ropes attached, and dip-nets, the poachers have been able to gather in large numbers of fish of all varieties, literally filling their wagons with their illegal catches.

It is charged that the chief offenders are residents of the villages of Harrisburg and Georgesville, who are using their catch for a winter's meat supply. Fishermen in that vicinity say that they have almost ruined the creek for hook and line fishing with their illegal raids.

The state annually spends large sums to stock streams with game fish, and it is declared to be a waste similar to those that have made this large expenditure almost useless.

Big Darby, in the neighborhood of these two villages, has long been infested with seiners and "giggers," fishermen say.

Williams Harmon, a gigantic negro from Winchester, Adams Co., was arrested by Patrolman Baughn Wednesday afternoon, and a charge of intoxication placed against him.

Harmon had been in Columbus, where he had evidently consumed too much Christmas cheer, and was very much intoxicated by the time he arrived here. He stood trial, was found guilty and given $5 and the costs, which amounted to a total of $10.55. He called on friends in this city to raise the price to freedom.

Harmon stood nearly six feet four inches in height, and was of herculean build.

IS FACING A DIFFICULT AND TRYING TASK NOW

GERLACH REORGANIZES HIS DEPLETED FORCES

Discipline Restored at the Boys' Industrial Home.

Lancaster, O., Dec. 19.—Refusing to accept his dismissal as a foregone conclusion, Major F. C. Gerlach, head of the Boys' Industrial school, has begun a reorganization of his depleted forces. Discipline has been completely restored, he declared, and the boys themselves are expressing a desire to obey the school rules.

As yet no successor to Chaplain John G. Schabily has been selected, Major Gerlach explained, but he expects to secure a chaplain before Jan. 1. The other officers who resigned will be replaced at once, he said, and within a few days all vacancies may be filled.

"We have as yet done nothing in regard to the 'correctional' cottage," declared Major Gerlach, "and it will continue as it is. I can't say that it will be done away with. The 'meditation' chambers, though, are abandoned, and the building in which they were located is being torn down." The meditation chamber was designed for unruly boys.

Of the boys who ran away from the institution within the last few days, four are still at large.

Control Large Sums of Money

for the charge that Mr. Morgan is the dominant figure in a comparatively small group of men who control the financial agencies of the country.

The committee's expert, through the tables presented, sought to convey the impression that 18 big financial institutions, including the Morgan, Rockefeller, Kuhn-Loeb group, exercise a control over the finances of the country.

The 18 institutions named were J. P. Morgan & Company, the First National bank, the Guaranty Trust company, the Bankers' Trust company, the National City bank, Kuhn, Loeb & Company, the National Bank of Commerce, the Hanover National bank, the Chicago National bank, the Astor Trust company, the New York Trust company, Blair & Company, Spayer & Company of New York; the Continental and Commercial National bank, the First National bank, the Illinois Trust and Savings bank of Chicago and Kidder, Peabody & Company and Lee, Higginson & Company of Boston.

The experts testified there are 180 firm members and directors in these institutions and they held 385 directorships in 41 banks and trust companies, having total resources of $3,832,000,000 and total deposits of $2,834,000,000.

All told, the 180 individuals in these 18 institutions held 746 directorships in 134 corporations, banking and otherwise, with total resources of capitalization of $25,325,000,000.

The bringing out of the fact that the committee has been unable to subpoena William Rockefeller, although they have resorted to every device, including the searching of his homes in New York and Tarrytown, was another important development.

Too Much.

Late one afternoon Michael Flannigan and Dennis O'Rourke met upon the avenue. Mike was considerably under the weather.

"Moike," asked O'Rourke, "why don't yez brace up, and lave the drink alone?"

"O'ive tried, Dinnie, but the job's too big for me."

"Thry this once more, Moike. Here's a church formin' us. Go in there, old man, and confess and take a frish start. I'll wait outside."

He waited until he was tired, then, peering into the darkened building, said in a hoarse whisper:

"Moike!"

"Have yez confessed?"

"O' have that!"

"Where's the prast?"

"E gorrah, Dinnie, and O' think he's gone out to call a cop."
